Redbridge Institute has established a culture of excellence and is an Outstanding adult learning provider inspiring over 4,000 learners a year. Learners and staff thrive in our harmonious and high quality learning environment. Working successfully with a range of partners we take learning out into the heart of our local communities.

We are looking for enthusiastic, innovative ESOL tutors to teach at our main centres and willing to travel to community venues across the area and confidently deliver online classes for our English for Every Day project which is due to end at the end of March 2021. There may be an opportunity for further work.

You will need to have a minimum of one year teaching experience and relevant subject specific qualifications. Recent experience of working in community settings with pre entry and entry level 1 learners is desirable. We will also consider tutors who are currently completing either subject specialisms or full teaching qualifications. You must be able to start employment at the beginning of January 2021.

We have excellent employment benefits and professional development opportunities for staff.
